

Wildflowers are growing here

This wildflower area provides a valuable habitat for bees, butterflies, beetles and birds.

The wildflowers and grasses will be cut every year once the flowers have set seed in late summer.

Bird's-foot trefoil

Ox-eye daisy

Crested dog's-tail

Yellow rattle

Knapweed

Worcestershire
Wildlife Trust

Poster designed by